AA. WHAT YOU'RE FEELING

RELEASE DATE: 01.28.2013

FORMAT: 12" Vinyl

NexGen Music brings you yet another masterpiece of deep, soulful and sophisticated Drum & Bass music.

A. CUTWORKS - 'JOINT'

Imagine entering a dark unfamiliar town where you're greeted with ghostly ambient tones including synthetic grumbling basses, distant ringing chimes, and deep, warm cinematic strings. But this is only a small beginning. After a brief intro featuring some steppy minimal drum patterns and beat progression, Cutworks unleashes a masterpiece drop of pure silk – with a bass-heavy blend of soulful minimal drum & bass, and vocal liquid funk.

'Joint' is one of those tunes that you just simply can't get enough of. Recommended to buy on site.

AA. CUTWORKS & NUMMIX - 'WHAT YOU'RE FEELING'

Cutworks teams up with Nummix to unleash 'What You're Feeling' – a deep thumping vocal liquid banger that is more than worthy of occupying the A-side of this release.

This piece has everything that a classic, soulful drum & bass tune should have, starting with a crispy drum beat accompanied by some vintage keyboard sounds. Upon the main drop 'What You're Feeling' quickly transitions into a rich soundscape featuring a slick but mysterious sounding male vocal, pumping kicks, deep sub-basses, resonant wobbles, jazzy guitar lines, melodic synths, and so much more.

This release is a serious piece of wax. Don't sleep on this one!

Watch out for upcoming D&B NexGen releases (12" Vinyl & Digital) featuring Undersound, CJ Styles, D.A, mS-doS, Faible & Iriann Joyce, Physical Illusion and Sunny Crimea.
