Fresh off the back of launching our new website and online store back in August, we're proud to announce our second official Drum & Bass release available exclusively in the NexGen Music store.

A: UNDERSOUND – 'TAKE ME THERE' (FEAT. BOOB00)

Have you ever experienced the thrill of suspense – not really sure of what will be happening next? Either way you will, listening to this five-star banger from the Welsh Wizard. From the crisp sound of hollow-toned drums, the discrete trills of a rag-time piano, a super-catchy plucked bass line accompanied with the lovely, soulful voice of BooBoo, this release will be caught up in your head for days and days.

B: UNDERSOUND – 'ABANDIN SHIP'

In a complete Jekyll & Hyde from the previous track, prepare to be haunted by the dark and eerie sounds weaved into this flipped-out rinsers. The psychedelic strums of the guitar, inhuman voices, manifesting stabs, and punchy drum beat will bring certain goosebumps to you skin, and chills running up your spine. Definitely one for the 'Rollers Massive'.

C: UNDERSOUND – 'MYSTERY CALLERS'

Step into the dizzy sound of a syncopated electric bass rhythm, shuttering guitar strums, rounded off by the funky sax licks in our third and final banger. It's been a while since we've put out a slap-in-the-face musical roller like this, and Undersound certainly doesn't disappoint with this one. "Pull uuuuuuuup!"

Watch out for upcoming D&B NexGen releases (12" Vinyl & Digital) featuring Cutworks & Nummix, CJ Styles, D.A, mSdoS, Faible & Iriann Joyce, Physical Illusion & Sunny Crimea.
